CERF Meeting Update – John Brawley

- Walter Boynton noted membership decline, down to 850 from 1100 in 2003 (was increasing until 2003)
- Journal is doing great
 - Revenue almost = to membership dues
 - Looking for better access to Springer journals
 - Journal wants more review articles
- Sending a student to Argentina for CERF Intl with $1500 from NEERS and $500 from CERF-Marianne McNamara
- Looking for ways to help affiliates with websites and member management – RFP for Association Management Company
- CERF office moving to WA from MD (where Exec. Director is located)
- CERF San Diego
 - 4 plenary sessions on nitrogen, sea level rise, ocean acidification, and invasive species
 - Potential effort to make meeting attendance more affordable – professors register 3 students and get the rest for $10
 - Cruise around San Diego harbor (needs 400 people)
 - Change bylaws – add student member at large (Leanna Heffner ex officio), nominations through February, elections in the spring
 - Students needed for committees – form student committee?

Website redesign is fantastic, thank you Jamie Vaudrey
